IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 12, 2011

As a result of investigative leads obtained following a shooting that occurred on Wednesday, May 11, 2011 at approximately 12:20 a.m., in the hallway of an apartment building located at 100 Charles St., the Westminster Police Department, Criminal Investigations Bureau, obtained an arrest warrant for Montrell Troy Schumpert, B/M, 12/7/1990.

Mr. Schumpert was charged with Attempted Second Degree Murder, First Degree Assault, Reckless Endangerment and Use of a Handgun in the Commission of a Felony.

In an unrelated incident, Baltimore City officers were serving a search and seizure warrant on Thursday, May 12, 2011 at approximately 2:00 p.m. on Penrose Ave. in Baltimore City. During the execution of this warrant all occupants of the residence were detained and identified. Mr. Schumpert was one of the individuals in the residence and after being identified he was subsequently arrested on the open arrest warrant.

At this time, Mr. Schumpert is being brought back to Carroll County where he will be formally charged and taken before a Commissioner for a bail review.
